Welcome

I grew up in California, and when I found myself seeking a new chapter, I followed God's leading to Walla Walla University, where I earned a degree in Theology and Biblical Languages. My journey in ministry began when I took the call with Washington Conference and was placed at Green Lake Church, where I had the joy of serving for nearly three years. Now, I feel deeply honored to step into the role of associate pastor here at Kirkland Church. I am passionate about cultivating spaces where people can be real, ask big questions, and encounter the transforming love of God in everyday life. Outside of church life, I love spending time with my friend and family, enjoying good food, and traveling whenever I can. I'm looking forward to getting to know each of you.
